

FlySafair Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage

Wherever they appear in these terms and conditions:

- (a) The words “we, us, our” means FlySafair;
- (b) The words “you”, “you’ve”, “you’ll” or “your” refer to the customer.

Certain capitalised words and acronyms have the meaning assigned to them in the Glossary of Terms appearing in Appendix G.

By purchasing a FlySafair ticket, you will be deemed to have read and accepted the terms and conditions contained herein.

In this regard we and you together agree that:

GENERAL STUFF

1. Above anything in these Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage, FlySafair is required to adhere to laws and regulations set out by the Government of South Africa and the South African Civil Aviation Authority as well as the Civil Aviation Authority of the relevant country to which we fly.
2. We and you will both abide by the laws and regulations referenced above. A quick overview highlighting of some of the most common aspects to take note of is included at the end of this document.
3. Where an individual takes exception or seeks to challenge elements or wording inherent to the laws and regulations above, they will do so directly with the responsible body whilst respecting that we are bound to enforce what is enshrined in these laws and regulations.
4. These Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage are governed by the laws of the Republic of South Africa and that any disagreement between us and you will be handled exclusively by the courts of the Republic of South Africa, notwithstanding the provisions of the Conventions, should they otherwise be applicable.
5. Any booking you make with FlySafair has rules attached to it, for example what costs are involved to make changes and to what degree your purchase can be refunded. These rules are available in Appendix A of this document, and fees are outlined in Appendix C.
6. FlySafair shall charge the prices outlined on our Website and fees as outlined in Appendix C hereto. These will apply as per the time of booking or making a change.
7. You won't be permitted to fly unless your booking, and any possible changes you've made to it, are paid up in full.
8. You understand and acknowledge that FlySafair has your Personal Data, which is needed in order to offer you our service. We will process your Personal Data in accordance with our external privacy policy, available here.

9. The booking you make with FlySafair is only for the portion of your journey operated by FlySafair, and FlySafair takes no responsibility for any costs associated with onward connecting flights, ground transportation arrangements, or hotel arrangements - no matter what happens, even if we are late or unable to operate a flight.
10. Applicable taxes, fees and charges imposed by a government or other authority, or by the operator of an airport, shall be payable by you. At the time you purchase your ticket, you will be advised of taxes, fees and charges not included in the fare, most of which will normally be shown separately on the ticket. The taxes, fees and charges imposed on air travel are constantly changing and can be imposed after the date of ticket issuance. If there is an increase in a tax, fee or charge shown on the ticket you will be obliged to pay it. Likewise, if a new tax, fee or charge is imposed even after ticket issuance, you will be obliged to pay it. Similarly, in the event of any taxes, fees or charges which you have paid to us at the time of ticket issuance are abolished or reduced such that they no longer apply to you, or a lesser amount is due, you will be entitled to claim a refund. If you do not travel, you may apply in writing for a full refund of taxes, fees and charges paid, in which case the refund may be subject to a reasonable administration charge.
11. 10 (Ten) or more people travelling together, who have booked through our groups department (not the FlySafair Website) are considered a group. Slightly different rules apply to groups. Please consult these rules in Appendix E.
12. FlySafair reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions as needed without notice. Such changes may be permanent or temporary for the purposes of promotions.

MAKING CHANGES TO BOOKINGS

13. You can make changes to any FlySafair flight booking on our Website or through our call centre as long as you make the changes 1 (one) hour or more before the flight departs.
 - a. The only exception to this rule is that there are certain fares sold via the GDS which may not be changed. More about these exceptions appear in the fare rules section in Appendix A.
 - b. Depending on your fare rules, you may have to pay a penalty charge per one-way flight.
 - c. If the new flight you want to book is more expensive than the one you already have, you'll need to pay in the difference.
14. Any booking made on the FlySafair Website can be changed within 24 (twenty-four) hours of making the booking without any penalty charges. If the new flight you want to book is more expensive than the one you already have, you'll need to pay in the difference.

TIMINGS, DEADLINES AND MISSED FLIGHTS

15. You agree to the following regarding timings and deadlines for Domestic Flights:
 - a. You acknowledge that we advise you to arrive at the airport at least 120 (hundred and twenty) minutes before your flight is scheduled to leave.
 - b. Check-in closes strictly 45 (forty-five) minutes before the flight is scheduled to leave.
 - i. Airport check-in opens 2 (two) hours before the flight is scheduled to leave.
 - ii. Online check-in opens 24 (twenty-four) hours before the flight is scheduled to leave.
 - c. Boarding gates close strictly 15 (fifteen) minutes before the flight is scheduled to leave.
16. To the following regarding timings and deadlines for International Flights:
 - a. You acknowledge that we advise you to arrive at the airport at least 2 (two) hours before your flight is scheduled to leave.
 - b. Check-in closes strictly 1 (one) hour before the flight is scheduled to leave.
 - i. Airport check-in opens 3 (three) hours before the flight is scheduled to depart.
 - ii. Online check-in opens 24 (twenty-four) hours before the flight is scheduled to leave.
 - c. Boarding gates close strictly 20 (twenty) minutes before the flight is scheduled to leave.
17. If you don't make the above timings, even if the aircraft is still on the ground and even if you're being late is not your fault, you'll be considered to have missed your flight.
18. Similarly, if you miss these deadlines because you are required to purchase checked-in luggage or any other services, you will be considered to have missed your flight.
19. If you have missed your flight the following will apply:
 - a. If you're at the airport, or get there within 1 (one) hour after the scheduled departure time, we'll offer you two options:
 - i. You can go on Standby for the next open seat, on the next flight, on that route for an additional Standby fee (view Appendix C), or
 - ii. You can make a change to your booking and get a confirmed seat, but you will pay a standard change penalty fee (regardless of your fare type) and, if the new flight you want to book is more expensive than the one you already have, you'll need to pay in the difference too.
 - b. If you miss your flight by more than 1 (one) hour, you forfeit the ticket altogether. For clarity there will be no amount refunded to you whatsoever.
 - c. The only circumstance in which (a) above will not apply, is if your booking was made via a GDS system, in which case you will have to book a new ticket.
20. Standby is on a first-come-first-served basis. You are not guaranteed a seat on the next flight, it completely depends on whether a seat is open or not, but you must take the first available seat. You may not use this option on any flight of your choice. If you fail to present for the next available flight, you will forfeit your Standby option.

OVERBOOKING

21. FlySafair will sell more tickets than there are available seats on a flight to ensure that flight prices are kept as low as possible. We and you further agree that this may result in your being denied boarding. Check-in is on a first-come-first-served basis and the last customer(s) to check-in are those that will be denied if the flight is overbooked. In this circumstance we and you agree that:
 - a. You will not hold FlySafair responsible for any damages or losses as a result of you not being able to travel.
 - b. That you will accept R1000 in cash (or the local currency equivalent in respect of international destinations) as compensation, and one of the following options:
 - i. A seat on the next available FlySafair flight to your destination at no charge, or
 - ii. A full refund.

CUSTOMER CONDUCT

22. FlySafair reserves the right to refuse anybody carriage if one or more of the following has happened or we reasonably believe it may happen:
 - a. If carrying you or your luggage may put the safety of the aircraft or the safety or health of any person in the aircraft in danger;
 - b. If carrying you or your luggage may affect the comfort of any person in the aircraft;
 - c. If you are drunk or under the influence of alcohol or drugs;
 - d. If you are, or we reasonably believe you are, in unlawful possession of drugs;
 - e. If you have ever been caught smoking, attempting to smoke and/or tampering

- with a smoke detector on a previous flight by a member of our crew;
- f. If your mental or physical state or health is considered a danger or risk to you, the aircraft or any person onboard, or you have failed to meet government, public health body, or other government enforcement body, health requirements applicable for the country you are travelling to;
 - g. If you have refused to allow a security check to be carried out on you or your luggage;
 - h. If you have not observed or obeyed the instructions of our ground staff or a member of the crew of the aircraft relating to safety or security, including but not limited to the requirement to comply with health mitigation measures implemented to prevent the spread of infectious disease;
 - i. If you have used threatening, abusive or insulting words towards our ground staff or another passenger or a member of the crew of the aircraft;
 - j. If you have deliberately interfered with a member of the crew of the aircraft carrying out their duties;
 - k. If you have put the safety of either the aircraft or any person in it in danger;
 - l. If you have made a hoax bomb or other security threat;
 - m. If you have committed a criminal offence during the check-in or boarding processes or on board the aircraft;
 - n. If you have not, or do not appear to have, valid travel documents;
 - o. If you try to enter a country for which your travel documents are not valid;
 - p. If the immigration authority for the country you are travelling to, or for a country in which you have a stopover, has told us (either orally or in writing) that it has decided not to allow you to enter that country, even if you have, or appear to have, valid travel documents;
 - q. If you destroy your travel documents during the flight;
 - r. If you have refused to allow us to photocopy your travel documents;
 - s. If you have refused to give your travel documents to a member of the crew of the aircraft, when we have asked you to do so;
 - t. If you ask the relevant government authorities for permission to enter a country in which you have landed as a transit passenger;
 - u. If carrying you would break government laws, regulations or orders;
 - v. If you have refused or failed to give us information which a government authority has asked us to provide about you, including passenger information requested in advance of your flight or valid health verification documentation required by the country that you are travelling to;
 - w. If you have not presented a valid ticket;
 - x. If you have not paid the fare (or any applicable carrier imposed charges and surcharges, and any applicable taxes, fees and charges) for your journey;
 - y. If you have presented a ticket acquired illegally;
 - z. If you have presented a ticket which you did not buy from us or our authorised agents;
 - aa. If you have presented a ticket which was not issued by us or our authorised agents;
 - bb. If you have presented a ticket which has been reported as being lost or stolen;
 - cc. If you have presented a counterfeit ticket;
 - dd. If you have presented a ticket with an alteration made neither by us nor our authorised agents;
 - ee. If you have presented a spoiled, torn or damaged ticket or a ticket which has been tampered with;
 - ff. If you cannot prove you are the person named in the ticket;
 - gg. If you have failed to present your ticket or your boarding pass or your travel documents to us when reasonably asked to do so;
 - hh. If you have failed to complete the check-in process by the check-in deadline;
 - ii. If you have failed to arrive at the boarding gate on time;
 - jj. If you have refused or failed to undergo health screening or a health examination requested by us or by a government or enforcement agency;
 - kk. If you have behaved in a way mentioned above on or in connection with a previous flight and we believe you may repeat this behaviour.
23. If we incur any expenses or fines due to actions that you take, which are against the law or civil aviation regulations, we will hold you liable for these costs (e.g. repairing or replacing property lost, stolen or damaged by you, or compensating any passenger, crew member or ground staff affected by your behaviour). Similarly, we and you agree that if we decide to divert, or delay, a flight as a result of your conduct, for the purposes of offloading you, you will be liable for all costs we incur as a result of that action.

24. If you take actions that contravene any safety rules or laws, or if you threaten any of our staff or otherwise bring FlySafair into disrepute, FlySafair may and will place you onto a list of banned flyers and you will not be able to make use of FlySafair flights in the future.

FLYING WITH CHILDREN AND INFANTS

25. Young persons over the age 12 years of age may be accepted for carriage unaccompanied on the specific request of his/her parent or legal guardian. The respective parent or legal guardian must remain at the airport until the departure of the flight.
26. Children younger than 12 years of age must be booked as Unaccompanied Minors. This is only applicable to Domestic Flights.
27. Persons 16 years of age and above may travel unaccompanied.
28. We, in accordance with current SACAA regulations, deem children under the age of 2 (two) at the time of travel, to be infants.
 - a. Infants must be at least 7 (seven) days old to fly.
 - b. Only one infant is allowed per one adult (16 or older) and must sit on the adult's lap.
 - c. Infants are charged a percentage of the adult fare and must be added to the booking confirmation. Please see Appendix C for pricing.
 - d. Only one infant can be seated per row of three seats.
 - e. One baby chair or perambulator (pram) is permitted (free of charge) per infant.
 - f. A single item of carry-on luggage of up to 56cm x 36cm x 23cm and weighing no more than 7kgs is permitted at no charge.

PERSONS REQUIRING ASSISTANCE

29. Persons living with disabilities, and others requiring special assistance, are welcome aboard FlySafair flights, and we agree that the following things apply:
 - a. Notice of any type of special assistance required from us must be given to us at least 24 (twenty-four) hours before departure, either when making a reservation online, or through our call centre.
 - b. SACAA regulations limit the number of passengers requiring special assistance that we are permitted to carry per flight. These spots will be issued on a first-come-first-served basis and so:
 - i. We cannot guarantee that you will be able to book onto any available flight if all these spots have been taken on that flight and;

- ii. If this service is not booked in advance, we cannot guarantee that you will be permitted to board the flight you booked for.
- c. No animals are permitted on FlySafair flights other than qualified Service Animals, and service animals in training, which must be accompanied by proof that the animal is registered with the Guide Dog Association of South Africa or the Federal Guide Dog Association. Emotional support animals without this level of training and accreditation are not permitted. No animals will be allowed on our International Flights.
- d. No medical oxygen is provided on board flights. Customers may bring aviation approved Portable Oxygen Concentrators (not compressed oxygen) for personal use on board the aircraft. Please review the rules around these special devices here.

TRAVELING WHILE PREGNANT

30. There are risks associated with air travel for pregnant passengers. You agree that you are fully aware of these risks and accept them.
 - a. Expectant mothers may travel up to 32 (thirty-two) weeks pregnant with no medical certificate.
 - b. A Doctor's Note permitting air travel will be required if the passenger is between 32 (thirty-two) and 35 (thirty-five) weeks pregnant.
 - c. We will not accept expectant mothers from the start of their 36th (thirty-sixth) week of pregnancy.

LUGGAGE

31. If you do not have checked-in luggage included in your fare, you will be required to pay for this service before you are able to check-in your bag.
32. A checked-in bag is a single item of luggage that weighs no more than 20 (twenty) kg and fits within these dimensions: 90cm x 75cm x 43cm.
33. No single piece of checked-in luggage may weigh more than 20 (twenty) kgs, regardless of how many pieces you have allocated to your reservation.
34. The carry-on luggage allowance is 2 (two) pieces of luggage:
 - a. One of these may be up to 56cm x 36cm x 23cm and may not weigh more than 7kgs. This luggage must fit, and be enclosed within, the cabin storage compartment without force.
 - b. The second item may be up to 40cm x 15cm x 20cm and must fit under the seat in front of you.
35. FlySafair airport teams may use sizing bins to ensure that your carry-on luggage is within

- parameters. These sizing bins offer 2cm grace on the permitted size of your luggage and you agree that if your luggage does not easily fit within these bins you will pay for your luggage to be checked into the Aircraft Hold.
36. If either your checked-in luggage, or carry-on luggage is too large, too heavy, or comprised of too many pieces, you agree that you will pay the applicable charges.
 - a. If carry-on luggage is too large you will need to purchase a checked-in luggage allowance and check your items in.
 - b. If checked-in luggage is overweight (up to a maximum of 32kg), you will need to pay the heavy bag fee outlined in Appendix C.
 37. There are specific laws and regulations regarding what may or may not be taken aboard a plane.
 - a. FlySafair can refuse to accept any luggage for any reason, specifically if:
 - i. Items are not suitably packed in a suitcase or other container allowing for safe transport and handling.
 - ii. Luggage contains illegal substances.
 - iii. Items are in the luggage that are deemed to be "dangerous goods" in terms of the regulations outlined by the International Air Transport Authority (IATA) and the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO). Click here for examples.
 - iv. Luggage contains loose or spare batteries.
 - v. The items are not within our maximum size and weight specifications.
 - vi. The items are fragile or perishable and are not properly packed and insulated.
 - b. LAGs in a passenger's hand luggage for International Flights must be in containers of maximum 100ml each or smaller. LAGs must be packed in a transparent, re-sealable plastic bag, the total capacity of which cannot be larger than 1 litre. It must be possible to open and re-seal the plastic bag.
 - c. Each passenger can carry ONLY ONE of these bags.
 - d. Baby formula and food as well as medication carried on-board need not be in your LAGs bag.
 - e. Duty free shoppers are assured that they will be allowed to take their purchases on board their flight as these stores will carry approved plastic bags.
 - f. We recommend that you place all LAGs in your checked-in luggage.
 38. Carriage of Human Remains:
 - a. Passengers are allowed to travel with cremated human remains "ash". These items must be properly packaged in a container that can be carried as hand or checked in luggage. Passengers must notify the check-in agent of intention to carry as hand luggage. Receptacles containing cremated remains will be screened at the airport security checkpoint and shall be exempted from search at the airport security checkpoint only when accompanied by a certificate of cremation and a death certificate.
 39. If you carry any of these items with, or without declaring them to FlySafair, you will be liable for any resulting fines or penalties.
 40. You agree that you will not hold FlySafair liable if the security teams at the airport confiscate any items in your luggage, refuse to process, or destroy your luggage due to their security concerns.
 41. You accept and understand that the process for handling luggage is both manual and mechanised and that it is reasonable to expect a degree of wear-and-tear to your belongings as well as possible damage. You further accept and agree that the processing of your luggage is managed by several parties other than FlySafair, and that while we will utilise all care, diligence and skill at our disposal to look after your items we can only accept a limited liability for any losses or damages.
 - a. We and you agree that these limitations are as per Appendix F of this document.
 - b. We and you agree that you are advised not to check in any item worth more than R1000 (one thousand Rand) and that if you do, you accept full responsibility for those item(s).
 - c. We and you agree that you are well advised to insure your belongings against theft and damage using an appropriate third-party insurer.
 - d. We agree that it is understood that luggage is handled by several parties throughout your journey and as a result of this reality, FlySafair only accepts a limited liability when it comes to any theft of, or from, your luggage.
 42. It is possible that your luggage may not be loaded onto the same flight that you take as a result of operational matters beyond our control. In this case we agree that:
 - a. You will not hold FlySafair liable for any damages or consequences of not having your items with you.
 - b. FlySafair shall use its best efforts to find and transport your luggage to you as soon as possible.
 43. Any lost or damaged luggage must be reported to the FlySafair Lost Property Office at your destination airport, within 24 (twenty-four) hours of arrival at that airport.

SEATING

45. Seating on FlySafair flights is assigned and customers are required to occupy the seats indicated on their boarding passes.
46. Customers may not switch seats during flight.
47. Pre-selected seating is included in some fare rules and is available as an optional service at a fee as indicated on our website at the time of booking. Terms relating to pre-selected seating are outlined in Appendix B of these Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage at the end of this document.
48. Regardless of whether a seat is pre-selected or not, the crew are permitted to move any customer if they are required to for reasons of safety.
49. Certain customers including children, pregnant women and people requiring assistance are not permitted to occupy emergency exit rows. This is a Civil Aviation Regulation – please refer to Appendix D.

CHANGES TO FLIGHT TIMES AND DELAYS

50. Flight times can change as a result of FlySafair's operational or commercial needs to do so, or because of unforeseen delays. Save as otherwise provided by the Conventions, you further agree that you will not hold FlySafair liable for any losses or damages as a result of these sorts of changes or delays.
51. Where a flight is delayed by more than 2 (two) hours or the scheduled time is changed by more than 1 (one) hour, and you wish not to continue on that flight, we will Reaccommodate you for free, to any other FlySafair flight, or offer a full refund of the booking in the form of a FlySafair Wallet.
52. No meals, accommodation, transportation or other compensation will be provided where customers are delayed, flight times are changed, or customers are denied boarding.

CANCELATIONS AND REFUNDS

53. Any FlySafair flight booking can be cancelled at any time before departure.
54. The different fare rules offer different options when it comes to obtaining a refund. Where applicable, these refunds are issued in the form of FlySafair Wallets.
55. Where the fare rules have no refund-to- Wallet facility, the following will apply:
- Cancellations made 45 (forty-five) days or more before departure will be subject to a 50% cancellation charge when cash refunds are requested.
 - Any cancellation made less than 45 (forty-five) days before departure will attract a 100% cancellation charge and as such, we advise customers to rather make a change to avoid this charge.

56. Should you qualify for a cash refund based on the above-mentioned terms and conditions, and the initial payment date to make the booking is older than 6 (six) months, your banking details will be required in order to process the refund.
57. Regardless of the fare rules, refunds to Wallet will be offered in the following circumstances:

Reason for cancellation	Refund amount
FlySafair cancels a flight, changes a scheduled flight by more than 1 (one) hour, or delays a flight for more than 2 (two) hours and the passenger chooses not to take the flight.	100%
FlySafair overbooks a flight and the passenger is denied boarding.	100%
If, within 5 (five) days of booking as the direct result of direct marketing (which must be provided) the passenger chooses to cancel the reservation.	100%
The passenger is unable to travel due to death or hospitalisation.	100%
The passenger was due to travel, on the same booking, with an individual who can no longer travel due to death or hospitalisation.	100%
The passenger has been declared unfit to fly by a medical doctor and can provide evidence thereof.	50%
The death of a passenger's direct family member (biological or legally adopted parent, sibling, or child) or common law spouse.	50%

IMPORTANT LEGAL STUFF

58. FlySafair reserves the right to limit all liabilities. These specific limitations are outlined in Appendix F. Your attention is drawn to the conditions outlined in Appendix F, which include:
- Limitations of liability arising from death or injury of passengers;
 - Hardship payments;
 - Liability for damage to luggage;
 - liability arising from delays;
 - Time period for brining claims.
59. Where relevant, we and you agree that FlySafair can pass on (cede) any of its rights of obligations within these Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage without your consent or notification to you. However, you may not pass on (cede, assign, encumber or transfer) any of your rights or obligations without our written permission.
60. Where we give permission to any person to act on our behalf, there will be no need for that authority to be proved.
61. We and you agree that FlySafair will not be liable to you in the event that we are not able to perform any or all of our obligations outlined here as a result of an uncontrollable event (Force Majeure).
62. If FlySafair does choose to relax or waive any of the terms of these Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage, we and you agree that this will not prevent FlySafair from being able to enforce these terms again in the future and that it will not affect the validity of these Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage, and we will not waiver any of our rights.

63. These Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage, together with its appendices and your booking confirmation, form the whole agreement between us and you.
64. We and you agree that if any part of these Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage is judged to be invalid, unenforceable, or unlawful to any extent in any jurisdiction, then only that part will be disregarded (pro non scripto), meaning that the rest of the agreement will continue to be valid and enforceable.

APPENDIX A: FARE RULES

1. FlySafair markets a number of different fares through various channels. Each of these fares has different rules inherent to them. All rules outlined in the preceding agreement apply unless otherwise stated here.
2. It's important to note that some fares include various services, the terms for which are outlined in Appendix B, below.
3. Where these services are packaged into a fare, the price associated to those services no longer applies. That is to say, no service can be subtracted from a bundled fare at the value prescribed for which it is sold as a stand-alone element on our website.

GDS SPECIFIC FARE RULES

Due to the unique nature of the GDS transactional environment, certain rules, over and above those stated above, apply to GDS bookings.

- Optional Extra Services not inherent to the GDS fares can be added to a GDS reservation after booking through the FlySafair Website or the FlySafair call centre.
- When changes are made to GDS reservations which include these services, agents must contact FlySafair to carry the services over – this will not happen automatically.
- FlySafair will not issue any refunds for services not carried over, where FlySafair was not informed of a change by the agent.
- All Fare Rules are stipulated in the GDS system and it is the responsibility of the booking agent to familiarise themselves with these rules as well as with these Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage.
- All penalties and fare differences for name changes and rerouting should be collected as "DU" taxes.
- ADMs and ACMs will be issued if fare rules are not adhered to. The full ADM/ACM policy can be reviewed here.
- All refunds, ADMs and ACMs will be processed via the BSP through which the transaction was originally processed.
- When changes are made to reservations, eTickets must be reissued simultaneously.
- eTickets are updated to a "flown" status, 2 (two) hours before departure. At this point no changes can be made.

APPENDIX B: FLYSAFAIR OPTIONAL EXTRA SERVICES

The following special optional extra services may be included in the fare rules of your ticket. Alternatively, they can be purchased separately.

Pricing for these services is available on www.flysafair.co.za.

11. Travel documents / entering another country:

Before you travel, it's important to check that you will be safe at your destination. We make no representations about the safety, security or general state of any destination, and you should research it before your flight.

You need to arrange all travel documents and visas for the countries you travel from, into or through. You must comply with all their laws, instructions and other requirements.

We are not liable to you for the consequences if you fail to get the documentation you need or if you fail to comply with any applicable laws, instructions or other requirements.

Before you travel, or when we ask for them, you must show us all your travel documents, including the documents you need to travel from, into or through the countries you plan to visit. You also agree to let us make and keep copies of your documentation. We may refuse your travel if you don't comply with these requests.

If you are denied entry to a country, you will need to pay us the cost to remove you from that country. We will not refund any of your costs to travel to the country which denied you entry. The fare collected for carriage to the point of refusal or denied entry will not be refunded by us.

If you didn't comply with instructions or the country's laws, instructions or requirements, or you didn't have or present the necessary documents, we may have to pay a fine or other cost. In this case you agree to pay us all of those costs on demand.

We can use the money you have paid us for travel you haven't yet taken, or any of your funds in our possession, to offset these costs.

You agree to allow security checks by aviation security services, governments, airport officials and/or any airline, including us. Customs or other government officials may demand to inspect your luggage, documents, or both. We are not liable to you for any resulting loss or damage, including cases where you refused their request.

12. Health check requirements:

If you refuse to comply with a government or airline medical-related directive, such as wearing a face mask or similar facial covering, submitted to a non-invasive thermal or temperature check, completion of a health declaration (including any proof of COVID-19 vaccination), or similar requirement you shall be offloaded from the flight and any costs associated with re-booking or loss of deposits shall be entirely for your own account.

APPENDIX E: RULES FOR GROUPS

1. Unless otherwise stated in this section, all preceding terms outlined in this contract apply to groups travelling together.
2. Quotations for Group Bookings can be achieved by completing a form on the FlySafair Website.
3. These bookings are facilitated by a specialized Group Bookings Department at FlySafair's Head Office.
4. To secure a Group Booking, a non-refundable 50% deposit for the total value of the reservation is required.
5. Full payment of the reservation is required 30 (thirty) days before departure.
6. Failure to confirm, and effect successful payment, for a group booking before the expiration of the quotation provided will result in the quote being rendered null and void.
7. Our Group Bookings Department can requote upon request, but fares may vary from the original quote.
8. Failure to effect successful payment for the balance of a Group Booking for which a deposit has been paid within the prescribed time limit, will result in that booking being cancelled and the deposit already paid will be forfeited.
 - a. The deposit already paid will be forfeited.
9. Group numbers cannot be altered once confirmation and payment (deposit or full payment) have been received.
10. Names of travellers within a group are only required two (2) weeks before departure unless shorter timelines are agreed in writing with the manager of the groups department.
11. All terms and fees for flight date, time, route and name changes stipulated in the fare rules section apply to groups too.
12. Groups must present for check-in two (2) hours before scheduled flight departure times.

APPENDIX F: LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

The Conventions are multilateral treaties that have been adopted by a diplomatic meeting of member states of the International Civil Aviation Organisation (ICAO). ICAO is a specialised agency of the United Nations. South Africa is a member state of ICAO.

If we and other carriers are involved in performing carriage for you under one ticket, or under a conjunction ticket, we will regard the carriage as a single operation for the purposes of the Conventions.

The conditions of carriage of each other carrier involved in your journey govern its liability to you. Other carriers may have lower limits of liability.

If we issue a ticket for you to be carried on another carrier or check in baggage for carriage on another carrier, we only do so as agent for that carrier.

Save as otherwise provided by the Conventions, our liability, if any, shall be limited to proven compensatory damages and we shall not be liable for any special, indirect, consequential or any other form of non-compensatory damages.

Our Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage, including its exclusions and limitations of liabilities, applies to our agents, operators, employees and representatives to the same extent as they apply to us. The total amount that you can recover from us, our agents, operators, employees and representatives will not be more than the total amount of our liability, if any.

Our Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage does not waive any defence or exclusion or limitation of our liability under the applicable Conventions or any other applicable laws, unless otherwise stated. We reserve all rights of recourse against any other person, including without limitation rights of contribution and indemnity.

1. Our liability for the death, wounding or other bodily injury of passengers:

- a. For any damages up to and including the sum of the equivalent of 128,821 SDRs (approximately US$ 180,500), we shall not exclude or limit our liability.
- b. Notwithstanding the provisions of clause a above, if we prove that the damage was caused by, or contributed to by, the negligence or other wrongful act or omission of the injured or deceased passenger or of the person claiming compensation, we may be exonerated wholly or partly from our liability in accordance with applicable laws.
- c. To the extent that damages under this clause may potentially exceed 128,821 SDRs (approximately US$ 180,500) they will be reduced accordingly if we prove that the damage was not due to the negligence or other wrongful act or omission of us or our agents or that the damage was solely due to the negligence or other wrongful act or omission of a third party.
- d. We shall, without delay make such advance payments as may be required to meet immediate economic needs on a basis proportionate to the hardship suffered.

- e. An advance payment shall not constitute recognition of our liability.
- f. An advance payment may be offset against any subsequent sums paid on the basis of our liability.
- g. We are not responsible for any illness, injury or disability, including death, attributable to your physical condition or for the aggravation of such condition.

2. Our liability for damage to luggage:

- a. We are not liable for damage to unchecked luggage (other than damage caused by delay which is covered by clause b below), unless the damage was caused by our negligence or the negligence of our agents.
- b. Our liability for damage to your luggage, including damage caused by delay, for International Travel, is limited by the Conventions to 1,288 SDRs (approximately US$1,800) except where you prove that the damage resulted from an act or omission by us or our agents carried out either:
 - i. with the intention of causing damage; or
 - ii. recklessly and with knowledge that damage would probably result, and you prove that our employees or agents responsible for the act or omission were acting within the scope of their employment.
- c. We are not liable for damage to luggage caused by delay if we prove that we and our agents took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or that it was impossible for us or our agents to take such measures.
- d. We are not liable for any damage caused by your luggage.
- e. You are responsible for any damage caused by your luggage to other people and property, including our property.
- f. We are not liable in any way whatever for damage to or loss of items which you include in your checked luggage although you are forbidden from including them under clause 37, or in the case of permitted firearms (Domestic Travel only) you have not complied with the conditions as provided for by the Conventions. These items include fragile or perishable items, items with a special value, such as money, jewellery, precious metals, computers, personal electronic devices, share certificates, bonds and other valuable documents, business documents, or passports and other identification documents. In the event of any claim for damage, delay or loss, we may avail ourselves of all defences of contributory negligence specified in the Conventions.
- g. We are not liable in any way whatever for damage to items which you include in your unchecked luggage although you are forbidden from including them under clause 37.
- h. We shall not accept liability for damage such as scratches, stains, dents, cuts and dirt resulting from normal wear and tear or water damage to non-waterproof luggage, damage or loss of protruding parts such as wheels, straps, pull handles or other items that are attached to luggage or items lost as a result of badly packaged luggage.

3. Our liability for damage caused by delay to passengers:

- a. To the extent that we and/or our agents are liable for any damage caused by delay, our liability will be limited and will not exceed 5,346 SDRs (approximately US$ 7,500).
- b. We are not liable for damage to passengers caused by delay if we prove that we and our agents took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or that that it was impossible for us or our agents to take such measures.

4. General:

- a. If we:
 - i. issue a ticket for you to be carried on another carrier; or
 - ii. check in luggage for carriage on another carrier;

we do so only as agent for that carrier. If you have a claim for checked luggage, you may make it against the first or last carrier or against the carrier performing the carriage during which the damage took place.
- b. We are not liable for any damage arising from:
 - i. our compliance with applicable laws or government rules and regulations; or
 - ii. your failure to comply with applicable laws or government rules and regulations.
- c. Nothing in these Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage:
 - i. prevents us from excluding or limiting our liability under the Conventions or any laws which apply; or
 - ii. waives any defence available to us under the Conventions or any laws which apply; against any public social insurance body or any person liable to pay, or who has paid, compensation for the death, wounding or other bodily injury of a passenger.

Where the Conventions are not applicable:

1. Any liability FlySafair has for damage will be reduced by any negligence on your part which causes or contributes to the damage in accordance with applicable law;
2. FlySafair will not be liable for damage to passengers or any checked-in luggage or unchecked-in luggage unless such damage is caused by our negligence and such passenger or such luggage was within our control or custody;
3. Where we are found to be liable for damage to a passenger, or for damage to checked-in luggage or unchecked luggage as per 4 above, such liability will always be subject to the limitations as set out in 6 below as well as the exclusions of liability as set out in the Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage document, specifically Clauses 35, 36, 37 and 38;

4. Any liability we might have towards luggage (in respect of domestic destinations) will always be limited to US$20 (twenty United States dollars) per kilogram and not the monetary value thereof. The maximum value of the checked-in luggage (in respect of domestic destinations) as a whole shall be limited to a maximum of US$400 (four hundred United States dollars) per passenger, provided that if in accordance with applicable law different limits of liability are applicable such different limits shall apply. If the weight of the luggage is not recorded on the luggage identification tag, it is presumed that the total weight of the checked-in luggage does not exceed 15 (fifteen) kilograms;
5. We will not be liable for any damage arising from our compliance with applicable laws, government rules, regulations and/or your failure to comply with such laws, rules and regulations. We shall have no liability whatsoever for damage, loss or partial loss to articles or items not permitted to be contained in your luggage or carried on your person;
6. Except where other specific provision is made in these Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage, we shall be liable to you only for direct damages in accordance with applicable law;
7. We are not liable for any damage caused by your luggage. You shall be responsible for any damage caused by your luggage to other persons or property, including our property;
8. We are not responsible for any illness, disability or death, attributable to your physical condition or for the aggravation of such condition;
9. All arrangements and services provided by us in respect of assistance provided to passengers, with reduced mobility and payment(s) made by us to the handling agent for such services, are as agent for and on behalf of you;
10. We, our agents and employees shall not be liable for any death, personal injury (unless such death or personal injury was caused by our negligence or our agents and employees), loss or damage however caused;
11. You voluntarily assume all risk and danger in connection with the assistance provided to passengers with reduced mobility including any death, personal injury, loss, damage or liability. Any complaints regarding the service shall be directed to and dealt with by the handling agent for such services;
12. The contract of carriage including these Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage, and exclusions or limits of liability, applies to our authorised agents, employees and representatives to the same extent as they apply to us. The total amount recoverable from us and from such authorised agents, employees and representatives shall not exceed the amount of our own liability, if any;

13. Nothing in these Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage shall waive any exclusion or limitation of our liability under the Conventions or applicable local laws unless otherwise expressly stated by us. Subject to any applicable law we will not in any circumstances be liable for indirect or consequential damages and in no event will our obligations exceed any liability specified in these Terms & Conditions of Booking & Carriage.

Time Limitation on Claims and Actions

14. Notice of claims – Domestic and International Flights: acceptance of luggage by the bearer of the luggage identification tag without complaint at the time of delivery is sufficient evidence that the luggage has been delivered in good condition and in accordance with the contract of carriage, unless you prove otherwise. If you wish to file a claim or an action regarding damage to checked baggage, you must notify us as soon as you discover the damage, and at the latest within seven (7) days of receipt of the baggage. If you wish to file a claim or an action regarding delay if the checked baggage, you must notify us within twenty-one (21) days from the date the baggage has been placed at your disposal. Every such notification must be made in writing.
15. Limitation of actions: Domestic and International flights: any right to damages shall be extinguished if an action is not brought against us within 2 (two) years of the date of arrival at the destination, or the date on which the aircraft was scheduled to arrive, or the date on which the carriage stopped.

APPENDIX G: GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Aircraft Hold: is the part of the aircraft below the passenger deck where luggage and cargo are transported.

Airport Taxes: are taxes and regulated charges levied by the parties like the airports, South African Civil Aviation Authority as well as the Civil Aviation Authority of the relevant country to which we fly, and others. These are legally required inclusions to a domestic and international airfare.

Booking: A single purchase transaction with FlySafair which may cater for more than one flight and more than one person.

BSP: Billing and Settlement Plan is a system owned by IATA designed to facilitate financial transactions between airlines and travel agents using GDS systems.

Certified Copy: A certified copy of a document is a physical copy on paper that bears an original stamp from a commissioner of Oaths and which is dated. A picture of such a copy, or a physical copy of such a copy does not constitute a certified copy.

Check-in: is the legally required process whereby you present to the airline at a specified time before the scheduled flight departure to hand over any checked-in luggage (if applicable), obtain a boarding pass document, and provide confirmation that you'll be on the flight in an assigned seat for the purposes of technical flight planning.

Conventions: whichever of the following apply:

- The Convention of the Unification of Certain Rules Relating to International Carriage by Air, signed at Warsaw, 12 October 1929 (referred to below as the Warsaw Convention);
- The Warsaw Convention as amended at The Hague on 28 September 1955;
- The Warsaw Convention as amended by Additional Protocol No. 1 of Montreal (1975);
- The Warsaw Convention as amended at The Hague and by Additional Protocol No. 2 of Montreal (1975);
- The Warsaw Convention as amended at The Hague and by Additional Protocol No. 4 of Montreal (1975);
- The Guadalajara Supplementary Convention (1961);
- The Convention of the Unification of Certain Rules for International Carriage by Air, signed at Montreal, 28 May 1999 (the Montreal Convention).

Coupon: this denotes a portion of an eTicket as defined below and generally relates to a one-way flight.
